

1. Carducci Viewpoint

From here you can enjoy one of the greatest views over the southern part of the city, the Tiber Valley, the Umbra Valley and the mountain ranges, from the Eugubino to the Coscerno.

2. Covered Market Terrace

Beautiful view to the east of the city to San Domenico and San Pietro, with typical bell-towers, while the view from Parco Santa Margherita below extends to the Subasio with Assisi and the surrounding mountains.

4. Arch of Via Appia

Here you can enjoy a wonderful view of the Conca, crossed by the characteristic hanging way of the Aqueduct, and of borgo Sant'Angelo.

5. Cassero Terrace

The tower, from the medieval circle of the city, where the largest of the fourteenth-century gates opens, was fortified in 1479. You can enjoy a wonderful view of the city and the surrounding mountains in every direction from the upper terrace.

6. Piazza Ermini

Dedicated to Giuseppe Ermini (Rome, 1900-81) the rector of the University of Studies of Perugia from 1945 to 1976. Palazzo Florenzi, formerly Danzetta, which was home to the famous salon of the marchesa Marianna Florenzi, looks out onto the square. There is a viewpoint in the square, above the Etruscan walls, towards the Conca and Sant'Angelo.

7. Via del Poggio

The road rests on a stretch of the Etruscan boundary walls, which comes out near the steps that lead to Via della Siepe. It appears as a balcony and offers an extraordinary view of Piazza San Francesco al Prato, with orchards and gardens.

8. Via della Cupa

Shaped as a terrace, above a long curved stretch of the Etruscan boundary wall, it offers one of the best viewpoints, to the north, of the apse of the church of San Benedetto and the Sciri tower. Your gaze sweeps from north to west over the modern city and the Trinity hills and the Città della Domenica fun park.
